

African Safari Packing List

- Binoculars
- Rifles
- Scope covers
- Boots with thick soles
- Ammo
- Passport, visas and Health certificate
- U.S. Customs declaration form 4457 for rifles
- Camera- Digital with extra flash cards and battery charger
- Electrical converters
- Shorts – Two pair
- Long Pants – Three pair, consider zip off legs
- Three long sleeve shirts
- Socks – Three pair
- Underwear (optional)
- Belt for pants
- Hunting Coat – appropriate for evening temperatures
- Camp shoes
- Toiletry items
- Raingear – Light-weight (no matter if it hasn't rained there for five years, pack a set anyway...)
- Day backpack
- Hat – Baseball type or if you are sensitive to the sun a bigger one that gives you more protection.
- Ziploc gallon size freezer bags – 6
- Hunting belt with ammo pouch, knife and multi tool
- Range finder
- Light-weight leather gloves
- Bandanas – 3 mosquito repellent imbedded ones
- Sun glasses
- Clear lens safety glasses – for riding in the back of the hunting truck in the dark
- Malaria Prophylaxis
- Insect bite relief cream
- Journal and extra pens
- Small gun cleaning kit
- Satellite phone
- Small Medical Kit
- Toilet paper and sanitary wipes
- Hand sanitizer – small bottle
- Lens cleaners
- Ear plugs
- Paperback books
- Duct tape ½ roll
- Electrical tape ½ roll
- Name tags with your info on one side and your taxidermist's info on the other. Include your broker's name as well. Enough zip ties to secure tags for all skulls and skins of trophies you may collect
- Headlamp – extra batteries
- Sun protection lotions
- Mosquito repellent
- Gun cases- soft ones